

Minutes from
Engineers Without Borders Meeting at the University of Oklahoma
October 6, 2005

A new person interested, though unable to make the last meeting, is Lindsey McClure.

Reminder – Apply for membership online soon!

<http://ewb-usa.com/membership/add/form.php>

1. Brief mention of Halloween volunteer consideration.
 - a. No decisions made pertaining to participation.
2. Projects - Current Rank of Options
 1. Nueva Suize, Honduras – this is the current direction of action
 - a. “Potable Water Project for Nueva Suiza, Omoa, Cortes, Honduras”
 2. Guatemala – Suggested projects from Marquette University
 - a. Huehuetenango - Water System
 - b. Los Canoas Water System (PAVA)
3. Fundraising
 - a. Cost Estimate (extremely rough based on flights and preliminary project cost breakdown) - $15,000-20,000
 - b. Begin Contacting Major Resources
 - i. President’s Office – Stew
 - ii. Clark Stroud of Student Affairs – Kyle
 - iii. Dean of Engineering Tom Landers– Stew
4. Officer’s Meeting !!!!!!!!!!!
 - a. Officers, and anyone else interested – Pick a time to meet and to discuss new ideas, vitality and issues pertaining to EWB organization progression in general
5. Recruitment/Publicity
 - a. Begin contacting departments about informing students
 - i. Chem E – Stew
 - ii. Mech E – Caroline
 - iii. Civil – Melissa
 - iv. I.E. – Lindsey McClure
6. Princeton Review
 - a. They suggested, quite generously, to consider teaming up on some projects. Our current plan of response is to gratefully decline that offer.